Safety Of Hostages In Brunei First Objective

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya (AP)—Rebels use of nine Europeans as hostages slowed British troops Tuesday night in their drive for full control of the Brunei oil town of Seria.

Combat teams bypassed the police station, where the hostages were held by about 50 rebels, to mop up other sections.

There were unconfirmed reports of sharp fighting in one area.

Seria remained the hottest spot in a rebellion against British authority in Brunei, an oil-rich protectorate, and the neighboring crown colonies of Sarawak and North Borneo.

Safety of Hostages
"Our chief concern is to release the hostages unharmed," said

Brig. A. G. Patterson, commander of the British operations.

Patterson said all nine were men on the staff of the Shell Oil Co., seized by the rebels at the outbreak of the uprising Saturday. One other Shell employee, a Eurasian, has been killed and two wounded in the fighting.

In the background, the jigsaw puzzle of Southeast Asian politics began shaping up.

Malaya Helps

—Indonesia, which rules most of Borneo, made clear its support of the rebels. President Sukarno hailed the uprising as a manifestation of "new emerging forces which are bound to triumph over colonialism and imperialism."

—Malaya placed its 21,300 police on emergency alert. This Commonwealth, a promoter of the projected Malaysia Federation to link it with Singapore and the Borneo territories in 1963, sent 160 jungle specialists of the field police to Brunei at the sultanate's request. Government sources said 1,000 more are ready to go at a moment's notice.

—The U.S. State Department rejected an application from Sheik A. M. Azahari, the Indonesian-educated front man of the rebellion, for a visa that would permit him to fly from Manila to New York and appeal for United Nations intervention. The British Embassy in Manila had announced it was withdrawing Azahari's passport.

Former FBI Agent Hits Un-American Group Probe

WASHINGTON (AP)—A one-time FBI agent strode down the center aisle of a crowded hearing room Tuesday and demanded that the House subcommittee on Un-American Activities halt its probe of a pacifist group called Women Strike for Peace.

"Mr. Congressman!" he shouted. "I am a patriotic citizen and a former FBI agent. I petition you to discontinue these proceedings before you heap disgrace on the American people."

With another shout he identified himself as Jack Levine. Policemen hustled him out of the room. Levine recently wrote an article on his experiences as a former FBI man, strongly criticizing FBI methods and what he called indoctrination.

Lively Episodes

The lively hearing session, which attracted a crowd of matronly women spectators, was marked by these other episodes: —Lyla Hoffman, an organizer of Women Strike for Peace in Great Neck, N.Y., conceded that she once was a Communist party member but said she had not been one for the past five years.

—Ruth Meyers of Roslyn, N.Y., another Women Strike for Peace worker, indignantly denied that she was the Ruth Meyers who signed a nominating petition in 1948 for a Communist candidate for New York City Council. She invoked the Fifth Amendment when asked if she had ever been a Communist.

—Blanche Posner, a middle-aged Austrian-borne blonde from Scarsdale, N.Y., overrode the protest of the subcommittee chairman, Clyde Doyle, D-Calif., to deliver an impassioned lecture about strontium 90 and nuclear testing. She then pleaded the Fifth Amendment in refusing to answer all questions, including whether she was a Communist.

The hearing was interrupted repeatedly by loud and prolonged applause from the spectators. One woman onlooker hugged and kissed Mrs. Meyers when she returned to her seat.

American Nazi Leader

George Lincoln Rockwell, leader of the American Nazi party, stood against the rear wall and watched.

Rep. William Flitts Ryan, D-N.Y., not a participant, issued a statement saying the committee hearings were another example of "misuse and abuse of legislative power." Ryan was one of two congressmen who protested the allocation of funds to the committee this year. The other was Rep. James Roosevelt, D-Calif.

Levine, after being ejected from the hearing room, appeared before television cameras outside and said he was convinced the hearings were "a very naked attempt to smear the American peace movement."

Asked by a newsmen if he is a Communist, Levine said "No, I'm not. Of course not."

LECTURES SUBCOMMITTEE—Mrs. Blanche Posner, of Scarsdale, N. Y., gestures at witness table as she lectures members of House Subcommittee on Un-American Activities about strontium 90 and nuclear war. She declined, however, to say whether she was an officer of the Women Strike for Peace movement, pleading the protection of the 5th Amendment. The hearings are looking into alleged Communist infiltration of peace organizations. (AP Wirephoto)

Wind Gap Firm Named In Picketing Bribery Charge

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Howard S. Kline, 62, business agent of Teamsters Union Local 773 was accused by the FBI Tuesday of accepting $1,000 from an employer to guarantee a firm would not be picketed.

Kline, of Orefield R. D. 1, was charged with violation of the Labor-Management Act of 1947 which prohibits the demand of payment by a labor official for personal use from an employer to insure labor peace.

Fred A. Frohbose, special agent in charge of the Philadelphia FBI office, said Kline took a $1,000 payoff from Valerie Fashions, Inc. of nearby Wind Gap in return for guaranteeing the firm would not be picketed by the Teamsters Union.

The complaint stated the firm, a member of the State Belt Apparel Contractor's Association, was picketed about a month ago and also on Nov. 27 and 30 and Dec. 3. Its employees, including truck drivers, belong to the International Ladies Garment Workers Union.

The Teamsters picketed the firm because it was not paying Teamster Union wage scale, the complaint charged.

Northampton County Court on Dec. 3 issued a temporary injunction prohibiting the picketing. A hearing is scheduled on that order Friday.

Bitter Cold, Snow Blanket The East

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two shafts of unseasonal arctic weather bore down Tuesday on parts of the United States, bringing weather miseries to more than half of the nation's population.

The first dumped up to two feet of snow on upper New York State, parts of Ohio and Pennsylvania and lesser amounts over a band of mountains in West Virginia, Kentucky, Virginia, North Carolina and Tennessee.

The second shaft—bearing a bitter subzero cold but little snow—moved down from Canada into Montana, North Dakota, Minnesota and Wisconsin, then southeasterly into Florida. It gradually warmed up over the Midwest—to zero and 15 above—but carried freezing readings deep into Florida.

Daytime temperatures moderated somewhat in the cold region, but the snow squalls continued for the most part.

Elsewhere over the country, the weather was mostly seasonal. The snowstorm, which has poured down with little letup since Thursday, has caused more than 65 deaths directly attributed to bad weather. Most of the dead were in New York, Ohio, Michigan, West Virginia and Pennsylvania.

The extreme northeastern part of Ohio was hit early Tuesday with up to 2 feet of new snow and an additional 12 inches was forecast for Tuesday night.

Highways cleared of earlier snow that had piled up into huge drifts were quickly closed again by squalls of wind-driven snow.

Ashtabula, Ohio, got 24 inches of snow atop some 43 inches on the ground. Comeau had a 12-inch fall atop a ground covering of 24 inches. Harpersfield and Jefferson, Ohio, had nearly 24 inches on the ground.

Eighteen inches of new snow over West Virginia earlier Tuesday brought the total on the ground to 36 inches in some mountain communities. Drifts in the same sections measured more than 20 feet.

Gusty winds and snow lashed Erie, Pa., with up to 12 inches.

Secondary roads drifted shut and schools closed down.

Farther southward the snow lessened, but fell in measurable amounts.

Frost and freezing temperatures touched deep into Florida. At South Miami it was 29 early Tuesday. Miami had a low of 40. Along the Keys, at the southernmost tip of Florida, the readings in the low 50s. Farmers and fruit growers throughout the state fought to keep the cold from killing winter vegetables and citrus fruits.

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Snow squalls driven by gusty winds lashed this lake port city Tuesday, piling up more than six inches of new snow atop a six-inch layer already on the ground.

The U. S. Weather Bureau forecast more snow Tuesday night, with a possible additional accumulation of five inches, and a continuation of 30 to 40-mile per hour winds.

Nearly 100 men, manning 43 pieces of equipment, managed to keep all main roads in the immediate Erie area open. But the high winds swirled deep drifts across most secondary roads, rendering them impassable.

IT'S COLD, COLD—If further proof is needed that winter is on the way these North Adams, Mass., schoolboys discovered it. Checking up on icicles formed at Hairpin Turn on the Mohawk Trail are William Elder, Peter Tefft and Peter R. Trabold Jr.

After Two-Day Discussion:

National Guard Chiefs Toss Revamping Plans To States

WASHINGTON (AP)—After two days of discussion, National Guard chiefs failed Tuesday to agree on a unified view on the Pentagon's controversial plan for a massive overhaul of their forces. So they tossed the problem to their governors.

The adjutants general of all the states except Alaska met here and decided after their futile closed sessions to explain their difficulties to Gov. Ernest Vandiver of Georgia, chairman of the Governors' Conference committee on Guard matters.

Maj. Gen. James Cantwell, New Jersey's adjutant general who is president of the group that discussed the plan with Army leaders, said the Guard chiefs are sending Vandiver a letter outlining what he called "certain concerns." They requested that Vandiver's committee meet with Secretary of Defense Robert S. Mc-Namara and try to negotiate some of the differences.

Cantwell declined to elaborate on what he meant by "certain concerns" or to make public the letter to Vandiver. He said the governor will have to do this, if anybody does.

The Pentagon last week ordered a start on its long-awaited plan to revamp the Army Reserve and National Guard more in line with modern weapons and tactics and to have some priority units capable of moving into action more quickly.

McNamara ordered immediate steps to drop four Reserve divisions and wind up with 393 fewer smaller units in a process of wiping some out and adding some new ones.

Drop Four Units

Similarly, he notified the governors of a plan to drop four Guard divisions and 338 lesser units and beef up six priority divisions and create seven new brigades and supporting units. The strengthened units would get priority for equipment and instructors.

Under the plan, the remaining, low-priority divisions—17 Guard and six Reserve—would be kept at about 50 per cent strength.

While McNamara can order the Reserve changes, his plans for the Guard are subject to veto by the governors, each of whom has the last word on what the Guard will consist of in his state.

Many of the governors have long been cool to the Guard overhaul, particularly in states which would lose units and where the total number of Guardsmen would be cut down.

Newspaper Strike Still Deadlocked

NEW YORK (AP)—Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz canvassed the four-day-old New York newspaper strike and found himself confronted Tuesday by a deadlock. He said the city's newspaper blackout might last days — or weeks.

Wirtz met separately with striking International Typographical Union printers and a committee from the Publishers Association of New York.

"I think it is an extremely serious situation. No present prospects exist which would entitle us to any optimism. As for the future, the strike will be settled, but I would be less than frank if I saw any hope for a quick settlement, unless the collective bargaining process start working better than now," Wirtz said later.

Wirtz then arranged to move on, leaving behind the nation's top mediator, director William E. Simkin of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, who accompanied him from Washington.

Tells Parliament

Nehru told Parliament members of his ruling Congress party the Red Chinese might be awaiting the outcome of the Colombo conference before deciding on their next move.

Both Nehru and the Chinese have been trying to enlist support of the six nonaligned nations meeting in Ceylon.

But reports from Colombo said delegates there have shown a wariness about stepping on the toes of either Peking or New Delhi and appear stymied about what stand to take in the undeclared war between the two Asian giants.

Nehru made plain in his speech to the legislators—delivered behind closed doors Monday and just disclosed—that the next move was up to Peking after his rejection of Red Chinese terms for settling the boundary dispute.

Simkin stayed on for a scheduled joint bargaining session Wednesday of printers and publishers.

Asked if either side had changed its position on wages and fringe benefits since the strike began at 2 a.m. last Saturday, Simkin replied: "Not fundamentally."

Out-of-town papers continued to show up in New York, but in numbers far too small to close the 5½ million daily circulation gap caused by the shutdown of the city's nine major dailies.

20,000 Idled

When the printers struck four of New York's dailies Saturday, the other five closed down. Idled were nearly 20,000 employees of the Times, Herald Tribune, Daily News, Mirror, Post, Journal-American, World-Telegram & Sun, Long Island Press and Long Island Star-Journal.

The ITU's AFL-CIO printers on the nine dailies sought an $18.45 a week wage increase over a two-year period, to bring base pay to $159.45. They also asked a shorter work week and other fringe benefits.

The publishers offered the ITU an $8 weekly wage increase over two years, plus fringe benefits they estimated as worth an additional $1.20 a week.

Good Morning!

Five-Member Group Will Begin Monday

CARMICHAELS, Pa. (AP)—

Scores of miners cleared debris from the Robena No. 3 coal mine Tuesday in preparation for investigations to determine the cause of an explosion that killed 37 men. The last of the bodies, found Monday night near the working face of the tunnel, were brought to the surface.

U.S. Steel Corp. announced Tuesday night that all 37 victims of the disaster have been positively identified.

The burial of victims started Tuesday. No mass burial was planned.

Officials of the United Mine Workers union and the federal and state governments were getting ready to start investigations.

Lewis Evans, state secretary of mines, appointed a five-member investigative group made up of four mining inspectors and an electrical inspector.

Start Probe Monday

Evans said the official investigation will start next Monday. The first phase will be a physical inspection of the mine.

Then public hearings will be held to go over evidence turned up by the inspection, Evans said.

Federal and state mine inspectors have been assigned to the mine on continuous duty to protect physical evidence, the secretary added.

No coal is being dug in any of the three Robena mine sections. A federal order prohibiting mining was issued shortly after the explosion on Thursday.

In other developments John Ozard, president of Robena Local 831 of the UMW, said he will call a special meeting of the local before work is resumed in the mine. The purpose of the meeting was not given.

The Most Rev. William G. Connor, bishop of the Greensburg Diocese, will officiate at a memorial Mass at 11 a.m. Saturday in All Saint's Church at Mason-town.

The Pennsylvania flag flew at half-staff over the capital Tuesday in memory of the dead miners. The memorial will continue until Friday.

Gov. Lawrence said, "This is a tragic and heart-rending thing, and the hearts of all Americans and all Pennsylvanians go out to the families and friends of the men who lost their lives."

Cites Possible Cause

Meanwhile, a Penn State professor suggested a sudden change in barometric pressure last week may have set the stage for the explosion.

Dr. Charles L. Hosler, head of the Department of Meteorology at Penn State, said:

"This sudden change in barometric pressure can significantly affect the amount of gas flow from the mine faces.

"Methane, the most explosive element of these gases, escapes from the seams through the mine faces during periods of low atmospheric pressure.

"At the same time, the lowered pressure weakens the walls and roof structures of mines, increasing the likelihood of rock falls that may expose pockets of methane, close off air passages and cause electric line breakage that ignite the gas," he said.

Leslie B. Worthington, president of U. S. Steel Corp., which owns Robena mine, issued this statement Tuesday:

"The past five days have been a period of intense anxiety, then deep sorrow, for the families of the 37 miners who died in the explosion at Robena mine.

"The hundreds of people engaged in rescue efforts, all of us at U. S. Steel and thousands of others throughout the country, have shared these feelings.

Jurors Picked For Communists' Trial

WASHINGTON (AP)—A jury was selected Tuesday to judge the U.S. Communist party on charges of failing to register as an agent of the Soviet Union.

The party was successful in barring government workers from the panel. But it failed in an effort to bar persons with relatives or friends in the government.

U.S. District Judge Alexander Holtzoff granted the one defense request and rejected the other as a new court round opened here in the government's 12-year battle to force the party to comply with registration provisions of the 1950 Subversive Activities Control Act.

When the jury was completed, court was recessed until Wednesday.

There was one other courtroom flurry.

Handbill Distributed

After a complaint by the Justice Department, Holtzoff ordered U.S. marshals to arrest anyone found passing out handbills in the courtroom.

"The rescue teams which worked so diligently and heroically, and the hundreds who supported them, both above and below ground, have earned the respect and gratitude of everyone.

"Their unflinching courage has been an inspiration throughout these anxious days. I know that all of them join all of us in U. S. Steel in expressing the deepest, most heart-felt sympathy to the miners' families."

Justice Department lawyers told the judge they had noticed the distribution of a handbill that said "The Communist party goes on trial. . . the supreme test of democracy itself."

Newsmen were given copies of the handbill and other materials by two men who identified themselves as members of a committee for the defense of Gus Hall and Benjamin J. Davis, two purported officers of the Communist party who are also awaiting trial.

Similar trials in the past have lasted for weeks, but indications are this one may last only a few days. The government said it plans to call only two witnesses. The defense said it would not call any.

Monroe Part Of Network Of Educational Television

FORMATION of a non-profit corporation to operate educational television was approved by representatives of public, private and parochial schools and colleges of the Lehigh Valley.

The group would use the name, Lehigh Valley Educational TV Corp.

Under present plans the corporation would use the former Channel 39, Allentown, to serve educational needs in Northampton, Monroe and Lehigh counties and part of Carbon County.

Elected as incorporators were Charles W. G. Fuller, president of the Eastern Area Joint High School Board; G. Raymond Todd, Northampton County school superintendent; Rev. Henry J. Huesman, school superintendent of the Allentown Catholic Diocese; Also, Rev. Harry Colver, educational television chairman of the Bethlehem Area School Board; Emaline K. Mohr, chairman of the Allentown School Board's education committee; Dr. Italo De Francesco, president of Kutztown State College; Glenn J. Christensen, provost of Lehigh University, and Frank Leitch, Lehigh County school superintendent.

James Magee, director of an educational television network study for Pennsylvania, said that he filed an application Nov. 8 with the Federal Communications Commission requesting the allocation of Channel 39 for Lehigh Valley educational uses. He acted on instruction of the State Public Instruction Department, he said.

Magee told the group that a federal appropriation of $32 million has been approved for the Health, Education and Welfare Department for a four-year period for educational television. No money is available now, but seven million dollars may become available next year, he added.

Pennsylvania, he said, is considering a bill to provide $1.8 million for the program.

Magee said he is reasonably sure that a channel would be made available to the Lehigh Valley if it is sought. Such a station would have to be placed within 15 miles of Allentown, he said, but no site has been chosen.

The new corporation was advised to write to the FCC asking that the allocation of Channel 39 to the group be expedited.

Seek Aid
The group was empowered to seek federal and state aid toward the project and to prepare a prospectus on television needs and probable costs to participating school systems.

Early March was set as the time for completion of the prospectus so that boards would have time to include any funds for television in the 1963-64 budgets.

Magee said he believed it impossible to begin the television operation by next fall unless the local districts are willing to pay the full cost without state or federal aid.

Bus Strike Negotiators Meet Today

WILKES-BARRE — With a report of "a slight amount of progress" in recent sessions, negotiators in the 35-day Martz Coach Co. strike awaited today's parley.

At that time they hope to have on hand Frank Martz, owner of the line, and Charles Clochino, an international representative of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Motor Coach Employees of America.

Martz Bus Lines services several stations in the Pocono Mountains.

The meeting will again be held in Parris Hall of Wilkes College where negotiators ended a full day of talks at 5 p.m. Monday.

At that time, Dr. Samuel Rosenberg, executive director of the Labor Management-Citizens Committee of the Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce, reported "a slight amount of progress was made at today's negotiations."

Dr. Rosenberg said he discerned a willingness on the part of both parties to get closer to agreement, and indicated he is still optimistic a settlement might be reached.

Started Nov. 6

Negotiators for the company and the striking union met with Dr. Rosenberg and three other members of the committee in an attempt to resolve the strike of 96 employees which began Nov. 6.

Serving on the mediation committee with Dr. Rosenberg are James Kenny of the Amalgamated Food Employees Union; Robert Slater, vice president of the Metropolitan Wire Goods Corp., and Dr. Eugene S. Farley, president of Wilkes College.

The Labor-Management-Citizens Committee entered the strike situation after efforts of C. Stanley Clevenger, a federal mediator, and Mayor Frank Slattery failed to bring a settlement.

Cramer To Be Home For Christmas

WILLIAM Bremner Cramer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford L. Cramer of 125 Berwick Heights Rd., East Stroudsburg, will be on Christmas Vacation from Blair Academy, Blairstown, N.J., from Dec. 15, 1962 until Jan. 2, 1963, when classes will resume.

William is a member of the Junior class at Blair. He plays in the Band, and is active in the Webster Society, the school debating society.

Roberts Candidate For GOP Chairman

RAY ROBERTS, vice president of the Monroe County Young Republicans, announced yesterday his candidacy for the office of Republican County Chairman and immediately requested a plan of positive action be taken to resolve the matter of "the disputed office."

Roberts stated, "In the interests of placing the decision of whom the committee people of Monroe County desire to be their presiding officer in their hands, I feel it imperative that a free, open election be held as has been suggested by the Republican State Committee."

"The committee people alone are responsible for the election of their leader. I would heartily encourage Mr. Parke Unangst, Mr. Hanford Cleveland or any other person desiring to serve the Republican Party in this capacity to state their intentions and plans before their assembled electors and abide by the votes cast."

Roberts further said, "The natural choice for the person to preside at the upcoming election would be Harold Kresge, Republican State Committeeman. By virtue of his office, he serves in a liaison capacity between the local and state organization.

"He has stated repeatedly throughout the recent campaign that he had no vested interests in the county chairman election but was working solely as campaign chairman and would return to his elected assignment of State Committeeman after Nov. 6.

"He is neutral and can preside at an election with fairness to all of the candidates."

"Restore Control" "My reasons for seeking this office," Roberts continued, "are simply to restore the control of the Republican Party to the people who win the elections, the committee people. This would include all of the phases of the party activities including patronage. We cannot expect to achieve results by calling on these people twice a year. They are on the 'firing-line' at election time — why not allow them to 'call the shots'." My role as County Chairman would be to administer the policies they set up. The majority of the committee people want this and that's why they have encouraged me to seek this office."

The 36-year-old Stroud Township resident was campaign manager of the Young GOP organization during the past election, is president of the Arlington Heights PTA, president of the Pocono Mountains Junior Chamber of Commerce, member of the Executive Committee of Pocono Mountains Jobs, Inc., financial chairman and past fund drive chairman of the local chapter of the American Red Cross, active in two phases of the current Community Chest Drive, member of the Board of Trustees and Adult Class Teacher of Wesley Chapel Methodist Church and has been active in many other community activities.

Eastwood High Graduate Roberts graduated from East Stroudsburg High School in 1943, attended Villanova College for one year and graduated from Pratt Institute in Brooklyn, N.Y. He is a veteran of World War II and the Korean War having served on board ship in the U.S. Navy as a radar specialist.

He is married to the former Norma Jane Canfield of Bartonsville and is the father of two children, Claudia Jane and Craig. Roberts is a partner in the firm of James N. Canfield, local feed, farm and garden supply business.

Funeral will be Friday, Dec. 14 at 2 p.m. from the Wesley Franklin Home, Church Street, Moscow.

Vacation Bureau Adopts By-Laws; Draftee Lauded

THE POCONO Mountains Vacation Bureau, Inc. unanimously adopted by-laws at a recent meeting of the general membership at the Penn-Stroud Hotel. The session was attended by a large segment of the Pocono Mountains member resorts.

The by-laws, drafted by Mrs. Ella Vannatta, president of the Central Division of the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau, Inc., are one of the results of the Vacation Bureau obtaining corporate status last July 1, 1962.

William J. Altier, president of the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau, Inc., lauded Mrs. Vannatta's effort and indicated how fortunate the membership was to have had someone with legal background, such as hers, undertake this difficult task. Altier stated that the by-laws, not only allow a reasonable degree of flexibility in the operation of the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau, but will provide sound operational guidelines for the future progress and continued success of the Corporation.

At the same dinner-meeting another issue of vital importance was raised by Altier. This agenda-item concerned the operation of official Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau Information Booths on a 10% commission basis.

Altier indicated that the membership agreement of the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau, Inc. included a Section "F" which stipulated that all members must agree to pay 10% commission to the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau, Inc. for all reservations secured through official information booths or through the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau office.

To Rescind "F" A lively discussion, reviewing both sides of this issue, ensued. At the conclusion, a motion was made by Wally Hoffman, owner of Birchwood Lodge & Cottages, to rescind Section "F" of the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau agreement, thereby eliminating the 10% commission that members of the Vacation Bureau would have to pay for

Col. Kale Says Thanks To Region

"I HAVE never lived in an area where the people were so friendly, so helpful, and so appreciative". These words are contained in a letter of thanks from former Tobyhanna Army Depot Commander Col. Lester W. Kale to John Crandall, general manager of Pocono Manor Inn.

Crandall was chairman of a farewell banquet for Colonel Kale at the Manor on the evening of last October 30. Co-sponsoring the banquet were the chambers of commerce of Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Pocono Mountains, Pittston, Carbondale, Archbald and Hazleton.

In West Virginia The letter from Colonel Kale was mailed from Huntington, W. Va., where the Colonel and his family now reside. It reads: "This letter is somewhat delayed for several reasons, but mostly because I have been unable to find the right words to adequately and accurately express my thoughts and feelings."

"I write to you as General Chairman of the October 30th banquet and I ask that you please convey my sentiments to all the participants, through the organizations of which they are members. I cannot possibly write to each of them individually, much as I would like to."

"Today, three weeks later and five hundred miles distant, I get a lump in my throat and a catch in my voice as I relive the night of 30 October. It was a night I shall remember and cherish as long as I live, which is exactly what it was intended to be, I know."

"Never have I received such an honor or such an expression of esteem and friendship from people with whom I was not closely connected professionally. And of course, I never will again. The reason the occasion was unique in my experience is that I have never lived in an area where the people were so friendly, so helpful, and so appreciative."

"Proud And Grateful" "I realize fully that the banquet was in part an expression of respect, support, and faith in the U. S. Army and the Depot, which I represented. For this, too, I am proud and grateful, just as I am for the more personal aspects of the tribute."

"The entire evening, the gifts, the dinner, the words of goodwill, were perfectly conceived, planned and carried out. I have never seen the equal."

"All I can say is 'well done and my heartfelt thanks to all.'"

THE first Commissioner of Internal Revenue, George S. Boutwell, was a former Governor of Massachusetts.

Defendant Must Pay Costs Jury Finds Learn Innocent After Long Deliberation

A MONROE County Court jury, after deliberating two hours and 40 minutes, yesterday found Darwin H. Learn, 30, Tannersville, innocent on a charge of drunken driving, but directed Learn to pay all costs in the case.

The jury of seven men and five women returned the verdict to Judge Fred W. Davis at 6:20 p.m. after reporting earlier that it could not reach a verdict.

T. E. Kirch, foreman of the jury, told Judge Davis at 5:45 p.m. that the jury was deadlocked and there had been no change in the original vote. Judge Davis sent the jury back to deliberate further.

At 6:10 p.m., the jury returned to the courtroom to ask Judge Davis two questions — could they recommend leniency if they found the defendant guilty and could they find him innocent, but compel him to pay the costs? Judge Davis told them that they could recommend leniency, but that such a recommendation is not binding on the court.

He explained to them again, as he had in his charge, that if they returned a not guilty verdict, they could place the costs either on the defendant or the prosecutor, or divide them between the two in whichever proportion they desired or they could place the entire costs on the county.

Learn was arrested by East Stroudsburg police on Nov. 24. He was represented by Atty. Maxwell H. Cohen of Stroudsburg, Dist. Atty. James R. Marsh presented the Commonwealth's case.

In other court action: Argus Walters, 51, Bushkill, charged with drunken driving, chose to defend himself rather than accept a court-appointed attorney. His case will go to a jury this morning after a summation by Marsh.

Fred Andrews, 57, of 279 S. Courtland St., East Stroudsburg, pleaded guilty to drunken driving and was committed to jail in default of a $300 fine and costs.

Pleads Guilty Charles Mecca, 127 Walnut St., Dunmore, pleaded guilty to drunken driving and was fined $300 and costs.

Robert H. Clausen, Smithfield Township, pleaded guilty to furnishing malt or brewed beverages to a minor and was fined $100 and costs or a month in jail.

Olympic Expands; Purchases Ronson Building In E-Burg

A MODERN one-story building at 61 Henry St., East Stroudsburg, has been sold through Binswanger Corporation to the Olympic Reconditioning Co., for $20,000.

Purchase of the building, a company spokesman said, will permit an expansion of Olympic Reconditioning Company's business of cleaning and restoring athletic equipment for schools and colleges.

The firm, which has been in business 25 years, now occupies four smaller buildings in East Stroudsburg. With the addition of the 11,000 square foot building on Henry Street, the company will occupy a total of about 25,000 square feet.

Brick And Concrete — The Henry Street building is of brick and concrete construction, has one dock for tailgate truck loading, and about 1200 square feet of modern office space. There is a parking and loading area in front of the building.

Binswanger represented the Ronson Corporation, owners of the building, in the transaction.

"Fine Gifts For Men"

Just Between Us—

This is the season of the year when our creative talent comes to the fore whether it's in decorating or cookie baking or putting our best foot forward. All you have to do is make the rounds of Christmas meetings to appreciate the results.

Mrs. George Ockershausen made the ceramic Christ in a tree and holly cake plates they used at the Women's Club tea table. The Metzgars created the Christmas trees which looked sort of Byzantine for the Anna Logan party.

As favors of the party Mrs. Meixell was going to give two smaller ornaments to the two members who sat on the chairs with Christmas seals underneath. Such an up turning of seats you never saw because somehow the seals had come unstuck from the metal bottoms and she had to devise another method of giving them away.

Even the dresses of the hostesses added to the color scheme. Pouring were Henri Metzgar in dark blue velvet and Ann Strickland in green brocade while Marie Mitchell was bustling back and forth with supplies in a red wool with a white hat.

Musical and dramatic talent also seem to reach new heights just now: the Pilgrim Chorus for the Woman's Club; Stroud Union Choir for Anna Logan; East Stroudsburg Glee Club for the band mothers, and the Irwins for the Hospital Aux. yesterday afternoon.

It's interesting to note how there are some people the community seems to instantly take to its heart. Usually slow to welcome strangers within our gates, we do make exceptions. The Irwins are comparative newcomers — drawn here to found the Cherry Lane Playhouse and then deciding to make this their year-round home. That in itself might endear them to the natives, but more than that they "give" — of their talents, of their time, and an out-going but quiet friendliness.

"They fit in as if they'd always been here," one of their admiring audience remarked contentedly. Of course the setting had something to do with the sort of "family feeling" that permeated the party. The Wyckoff home has been the scene of so many such gatherings for so many years, that it seems to have absorbed in its wainscotted walls, its high beamed ceilings, and carved and curving hall stairway a sense of old-fashioned hospitality.

Blue Valley Garden Club Holds Party

Mrs. Edward Kissinger, president of the Warren County Garden Club, was the speaker, demonstrating the arrangements of Christmas wreaths. Miss Karen Dawn, ventriloquist of Easton, provided entertainment. There were group Christmas carols under the direction of Carl Kressler, with Mrs. Forrest Eyer as accompanist.

Music was provided by a combo which included Carl Rice, Robert Widmer and Carl Kressler, through the courtesy of the transcription and recording fund of the American Federation of Musicians.

There were prizes for Christmas arrangements made by the members. In the Madonna group, Mrs. Ardy Van Horn won first; Mrs. George Dungan, second; and Mrs. Elda Pysher, third. Two prizes in each class were awarded for door decorations with first prizes going to Mrs. Whit Barton and Mrs. Paul Weidman; second prizes to Mrs. Russell Pritchard and Mrs. Elda Pysher; third prizes to Mrs. Van Horn and Mrs. Martha Luscombe.

Refreshments were served by the hospitality committee.

Ovation For Irwins At Hospital Aux.

Christmas overflowed at the meeting of the General Hospital Aux. yesterday afternoon with 50 members and guests at the home of Mrs. E. H. Wyckoff, 514 Thomas St., Stroudsburg. Mrs. William Gorman greeted the group and introduced Mrs. George Goll as a new member.

Carol singing was led by Mrs. Harry Kresge with Miss Bess Gardner at the piano. Mrs. Wyckoff introduced Mr. and Mrs. Jack Irwin who presented the Christmas program of song and story. Readings by Mrs. Irwin, whose professional name is Janna Pearce, were alternated with solos by her husband. Ernest Michel-felder was the accompanist.

Mrs. Irwin read "the official account of the birth of Jesus" from St. Luke, illustrated in song by Mr. Irwin with "Twelve the Birthday of the King" and "Sleep Holy Babe". The reading of the story "Why the Chimes Rang" was followed by three contemporary folk songs of Christmas "Go Tell It On The Mountain", "I Wonder as I Wander," and "Sweet Little Jesus Boy."

Julia Holloway's poem of Christmas was followed by the songs, "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day", and a sixteenth century poem by an old English Christmas carol, "What Child is This". A standing ovation was given to the Irwins at the conclusion of their program.

Guests included Mrs. Julia Holloway, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Irwin and Bobby Westbrook.

Eggnog and Christmas cookies were served from a table set with silver centerpiece and accessories, a green damask cloth and green punch bowl and cookies. Mrs. Wyckoff was assisted by Mrs. Verner Reynolds, Mrs. Henry Tucker and Mrs. Harry Albert.

The next meeting will be held Jan. 8 at the PP&L Service Center.

Seek Gifts For Children In Hospital

While many of the adult patients at the Allentown State Hospital will find that they have not been forgotten during the Christmas season, thanks to the Christmas stocking project sponsored by the Monroe County Mental Health Assn., the same can not be said for the small patients at the hospital.

The social service department reports the need for group toys, especially a tricycle. Anyone who has a tricycle they wish to donate may call William H. Clark, treasurer of the local Mental Health Assn., 421 9000, who will arrange to have it picked up.

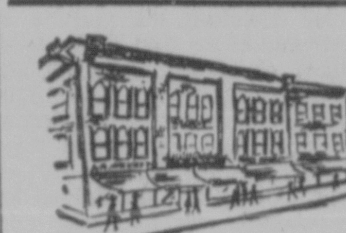

Some of the teenage patients are also anxious to have stamped Christmas cards on which they can send their greetings.

Children at the hospital range from 5 through 16 years of age. The local Mental Health Assn. has received donations from the Barrett Community Club, the Soroptimist Club and Floyd Shook.

THE WYCKOFF SHOPPER

"This is really the year of the hair dryer," Tess Weber remarked, when I stopped to use an emery board in our Cosmetic department the other noon hour. I had been attracted to a very pretty dryer in a leather-like hat box.

"Selling a lot?" I asked. She nodded vigorously. "We're selling plenty. Everyone wants one this year."

Frankly, I had never really understood why there was such an interest in these miniature dryers until Sunday evening when my daughter washed my hair and wound it on rollers just before bedtime. I was in agony all night, and woke every hour on the hour which, I assume, is just about every time I tried to roll from side to side. My head felt as though porcupine quills were being driven into every pore, and today I'm cross as a bear roused from its mid-winter nap. If, at this point, Dear Old Santa would like to add a portable hair dryer to anything he anticipates tossing down our chimney, I'd be delighted. He needn't even wait until Christmas for delivery.

Incidentally, the Lady Sunbeam I admired in our Cosmetic department was ticketed 21.99, and there was also a less expensive model on display. Our Housewares department offers hair dryers by General Electric in a very wide price range. . . at least it did a few days ago. Who knows now, the way merchandise is soaring away "on wings of love" to find a joyous resting place beneath someone's Christmas tree!

'ROUND AND ABOUT WYCKOFF'S—

For the woman (or the gentleman) who enjoys preparing exotic dishes, I can think of no gift more inspiring than the big Spice Islands box containing Curry Powder, Garlic Salt, Hot Mustard, Beau Monde Seasoning, Paprika and Black Java Pepper—all for 3.29 in our Candy department. Spice Islands flavors and seasonings can be depended upon to make the most of any dish and to make any eligible bachelor feel that if girl who uses them is, herself, a pretty special dish. . . Jewel-like in its coloring, the oddly shaped package containing "Seven Winds" perfume is also a cute "tie on" ornament for the tree. Just 1.75. . . And speaking of fragrance, have you "sniffed" Matchabelli's new "Prophecy"? Cologne is 2.50 and 3.75; spray, 4.00, and perfume, 3.00-6.00 and 10.00. The girls in our Cosmetic department, judging from the reaction of local customers, are prophesying it will enjoy a tremendous success. . . If I were a man and were shopping our Cosmetic department for my Lady Love, I am sure I'd select a vanity set for her—a mirrored tray with a very wide antique gold frame in graceful rose motif with chunky, square bottle and perfume atomizer banded in the same stunning design. The three are 32.00, I believe, but the tray may be purchased separately. Another set is antique white: 16.00 for the accessories, 7.50 for the tray. And aren't those heavy glasses and gilt "jewel caskets" superb? Banded in filigree of gilt or silver these are 6.00 and 9.00. Other dresser trays are priced from 6.50. . . In our nearby Accessories department, there are many adorable Stocking Stuffers, including colorful Andre Richard sachets packaged twelve to a flat box at 1.00. Bayberry Mist, so handy and marvelous at Christmas, is 1.50. And what about those pretty collars to snap on in-a-wink when you wish to completely transform the appearance of a dress? Bunny fur or pearl collars are 1.98; white yarn, 1.00. . . Seasonal jewelry is unusually attractive this year, and I particularly admire the holly berry brooch and earrings, gaily enameled in green and red, for wear "from Thanksgiving to New Year," at 2.00. . . Oh, I love shopping around Wyckoff's at Christmas, but it's a good thing my finances are limited. If they weren't, I'd buy everything in sight and be forced to rent the store to house my possessions.

Joyeux Noel For French Conversation

Mrs. Georg Stabenow reported that the French Conversation group meeting at her home on Monday night was an enthusiastic one.

Kenney, 35 Club Court Stroudsburg. There is no charge for the group and anyone interested in talking in French is invited.

Cubs Bring Gifts For State School

The Cub Scouts of Pack 86 brought gifts and Christmas cards for the boys at White Haven to their meeting held Monday night in the Parish Hall of the Stroudsburg Methodist Church.

Den 6 led the opening flag ceremony. The new assistant Cubmaster, Lloyd Manter was introduced. Joe DeVivo received his Wolf badge and Bobby Stem his Lion badge and was transferred to the Webelos Den.

David Burris, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Burris, entertained with a number of selections on the organ. Santa Claus distributed gifts and candy. Rev. Roger Stimson spoke briefly and refreshments were served.

To Decide On Community Project

Saylorsburg — The Progressive Women's Club of Saylorsburg will meet at the Chestnut Hill Twp. School on Wednesday night for a Christmas party beginning with a covered dish supper at 6:30.

Mrs. Lydia Howter is chairman of the hostess committee, which includes Mrs. Grant Knowles, Mrs. Carl Kresge, Mrs. Warren Lee, Mrs. Harry Mackin, Mrs. Gorman Roof, Mrs. Paul Russell, Mrs. Walter Singer, Mrs. Clayton Snyder, Mrs. Norman Trach and Mrs. Thomas Trach.

Acme Hose Aux. Stuff Stockings After Supper

ALL FOR MRS. ALL—Roses and an orchid from her service clubs and a gift from the staff of the Monroe County Board of Assistance marked the staff dinner held in her honor. Mrs. All is retiring from the staff after 26 years of service.

Many Interests To Enrich Retirement For Mrs. All

A testimonial dinner honoring Mrs. Bernice G. All was given by members of the staff of the Monroe County Board of Assistance, and was held at the Penn-Stroud Hotel. Mrs. All is retiring as Caseworker 11 on Dec. 31 after 26 years of service.

A floral centerpiece from the Business and Professional Woman's Club and an orchid corsage from the Soroptimist Club were presented to her at the dinner. The staff members presented her with a gift of antique jewelry.

A native of Terre Haute, Ind., Mrs. All came to Stroudsburg with her family in 1928. She joined the staff of the Mothers' Assistance Fund of the Pennsylvania Dept. of Public Welfare in 1936. When this fund merged with the Dept. of Public Assistance, Mrs. All was retained in the capacity of a visitor. When the size of the staff warranted a supervisor, Mrs. All served in that capacity.

In connection with her vital concern with the problems of the people with whom she came in contact through her work, Mrs. All recognized the need for a home for aged persons in the community. She was one of the leaders in the drive for Laurel Manor which opened on West Main St., Stroudsburg, in 1958 under the sponsorship of the Business and Professional Woman's Club with the cooperation of other service clubs of the community and financial aid from many local citizens.

Mrs. All has maintained an active interest in the home and has served on its board of directors as well as several of the committees. Other organizations in which Mrs. All is or has been active are the Ann Logan Society, the Stroudsburg Woman's Club, the Soroptimist Club, and the executive boards of the Cancer Society, Mental Health Assn. and the Salvation Army.

Mrs. All is famous locally for her baking projects. The proceeds from the sale of her baked goods have helped to increase the project funds of a number of the service clubs of the area. Mrs. All also has an outstanding collection of African violets, numbering more than 200 plants. She has a great appreciation for music and attends the Metropolitan Opera regularly during its season. At home she also collects cookbooks, since cooking is another absorbing hobby.

Her major interest however, is in her family and grandchildren, and their activities. With her variety of interests, retirement holds no fears for Mrs. All.

Cookie Klatch Trades Cookies For Holiday Variety, Despite Measles

By Linda Pipher
Daily Record Home Economist

I've had a rough week; I've suffered from measles. That's what mothers get when their children have measles, and I'm not the only one afflicted as I understand there's quite a few cases around.

In the couple of days before they hatched when Billy was at the point that he was overjoyed to be missing school, and felt good enough to be up and around, we passed the time by making presents and decorations. We did have fun decorating Christmas bulbs that we planned to use as place cards for the family birthday party last Sunday (which had to be cancelled as the measles took over by that time!). After spreading the dining room table with newspapers I covered it with all the odds and ends I could find. Then we made faces for the bulbs out of felt, sequins, and buttons; we glued cotton on for whiskers or ears, artificial flowers for hats, and even made a bride by cutting a white hair net that made a perfect veil. Each bulb rested on a circle of heavy red foil ribbon, but if you're feeling creative and don't have the foil, glue to a piece of cardboard or circle of foam. They're really cute, and fun for children to make.

Another present Billy made was to glue the front of a pretty Christmas card from last year to the inside of a foil meat pie pan. With an ice pick we punched holes in the top through which we put bright red ribbon so that the Christmas pictures could be hung on the wall.

Being shut in for a week at least gives me time to get my baking done. My neighbors are having a Cookie Klatch this week; each of us bakes a dozen of one kind of cookie for each girl so that we go with thirteen dozen of each kind, and come home with thirteen dozen different kinds! A clever idea, I'd say, wouldn't you? And hostess Jean Bensinger tells me we stay to have a cup of coffee which doesn't take too long so that we can all get back to our projects.

I'm taking to the Klatch another of my favorites; they are the kind that I could sit and eat for hours, at by myself, so it's best I share them in order to have room for others!

4th Woman Treasurer Pennsylvania Woman To Take Over Pursestrings

By Frank Cormier
Washington (AP) — Kathryn E. Granahan, a gray-haired widow from Philadelphia, will become treasurer of the United States in January.

Ironically, she missed up her first financial transaction after getting the job.

President Kennedy nominated her for the important money-handling post Sept. 28 when she was en route to her home from Washington. Arriving at her front stoop, she owed a cab fare of $2.25.

Quickly Mrs. Granahan handed the driver two bills and some small change.

"Lady," the startled driver said, "You just gave me $11 — a ten and a one." She thought she had given him two one-dollar bills.

At that point, Mrs. Granahan began to think seriously about the possible wisdom of printing multi-colored paper money, with a different hue for each denomination. This idea was pushed, without success, by the last treasurer, Mrs. Elizabeth Rudell Smith Gatov, who quit in April to return to Democratic politics in California.

Actually, Mrs. Granahan says she has a completely open mind about multi-colored money. She does note, however, that many of the 6,000 congratulatory messages sent her in the weeks following her appointment said, in effect: "Don't change the color of our money."

Distaff Tradition
When Mrs. Granahan takes the oath of office, she will become the fourth straight woman to hold the treasurership, which is not to be confused with the more august position of secretary of the treasury. Former President Harry Truman started the distaff tradition by naming Mrs. Georgia Neesee Clark to the job in 1949.

While Mrs. Granahan's move to the Treasury will fit into the new tradition, it will set a precedent on another count. She is the first member of Congress appointed to the post.

Since 1956, Mrs. Granahan has been a member of the House of Representatives, where she was best known for her efforts, through legislation and otherwise, to curb the distribution of pornography.

The first woman ever elected to Congress from her state, she succeeded her late husband, William T. Granahan. If it weren't for the 1960 census, she would be continuing in the house.

The census results stripped Pennsylvania of one seat, because the state's population growth during the 1950s fell short of the national average. Democratic politicians decided to combine Mrs. Granahan's district with a neighboring "safe" Democratic district, and to force her retirement.

Mrs. Granahan did not take kindly to the idea but, as a loyal party worker and ward leader of many years' standing, she accepted the decision. The grateful bosses moved into action to land her the treasurership.

Still in House
At present, she remains a member of the House and will not resign until she moves down Pennsylvania Avenue to the aging Treasury building, next door to the White House.

There is at least one good reason why Mrs. Granahan might wish to delay the move. As a Congresswoman, she is paid $22,500 a year. Her salary as treasurer will be $20,000.

The fact that Mrs. Granahan can take her time about moving to her new office is indicative of the fact that treasurers of the United States are not exactly indispensable. The work gets done, by career experts, whether or not there is a full-fledged treasurer in residence.

Frustrating Job
Since Mrs. Gatov's resignation, the office has been operated by William T. Howell, the deputy treasurer and a 26-year-veteran. Even after Mrs. Granahan takes over, Howell presumably will continue to shoulder many of the day-to-day administrative burdens.

One reason for Mrs. Gatov's resignation was a feeling of frustration. Since the treasurer has no policy-making powers, and is rarely consulted on policy matters, Mrs. Gatov felt outside the mainstream of the new frontier. That was not to the liking of a bright, energetic woman of her temperament.

Mrs. Granahan, who is at least 10 years older but just as bright and energetic, has her own hopes of getting into the thick of Treasury affairs.

"I'm looking forward so much to working with Secretary Dillon," she told a reporter.

Actually, Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon seldom sees the treasurer. There is no reason to believe he will change his work habits when Mrs. Granahan takes over.

Even within the treasurer's office, Mrs. Granahan will face a major problem: She knows very little about the highly specialized work involved — although she promises to learn. Having been in the habit of working 12-hour days in Congress, it seems certain she will try hard to learn.

Social Problem
Because of the specialized nature of the work, the recent lady treasurers have tended to emphasize the ceremonial functions of the office: making speeches

Bake in a moderate oven (350) for 30 minutes. Cool. Cut into 20 squares.

Cranberry Filling:
Cook together until cranberries are soft:
1 cup raw cranberries
¼ cup seedless raisins
¼ cup honey
¼ cup water
Sprinkle 2 teaspoons flour over top, stir and cook until thickened. Cool and put between dough mixture as directed above.

With cookies, we served an assortment of candies. An easy, crunchy, and good candy was this:

Chinese New Year Cookies
1 pkg. (6 oz.) chocolate pieces
1 pkg. (6 oz.) caramel pieces
1 can (3 oz.) Chinese chow mein noodles
1 can (7½ oz.) salted peanuts
Melt chocolate and caramel pieces over hot water. Mix in noodles and nuts. Stir into melted mixture. Drop by spoonfuls onto waxed paper. Chill. Yield: about 4 doz. cookies.

The next recipe for fudge is delicious and keeps creamy for weeks. It's wonderful, made with Brazil nuts but if you're pressed for time (or lack patience) use walnuts instead.

Brazil Nut Fudge
4½ cups sugar
1 large can evaporated milk
3 - 5 oz. plain chocolate bars
2 - 6 oz. pkg. chopped semi-sweet chocolate
8 oz. jar marshmallow whip
1½ teaspoon salt
1 cup Brazil nut pieces (or chopped walnuts)
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
Bring sugar and milk together to boiling point, then cook over medium heat 4½ minutes (clock it exactly), stirring occasionally. Break chocolate bars into pieces, mix with chopped semi-sweet chocolate, marshmallow whip and salt in a large bowl. Pour hot sugar milk mixture over, one-half at a time, mixing thoroughly after each addition. Let stand until cool, add nuts and vanilla extract and pour into a large, buttered pan (about 8 by 12 inches). Cool in refrigerator and cut into pieces. Makes lots and keeps beautifully.

Any school is busy at Christmas-time, but no department hums more merrily than the Home Economics Department. The fragrant aromas emitting from the kitchens are much more pleasant than the usual ones coming from the Chemistry Labs, but students and teachers alike suffer, especially in the morning when stomaches are growling and no samples are given out.

Each year new recipes are tried, and at Stroud Union the Home Ec students spend the month of December preparing for the annual faculty party. Last year we had so many new, good recipes, that we typed them on dittos and presented each teacher with a booklet. One of the favorites was the Crescent recipe, another, the following:

Fresh Cranberry Bars
Crumble dough:
1½ cups sifted All-Purpose flour
¼ teaspoon baking soda
¾ cup packed light brown sugar
1½ cups uncooked quick oats
Two-thirds cup melted butter
Stir together flour and soda. Add sugar and oats and stir in melted butter. Pat half the oats mixture onto the bottom of a greased 8-inch square pan. Spread with cranberry filling. Pat remaining oats mixture over top.

around the country as a good will ambassador of the party in power, handing out awards to star salesmen of U.S. savings bonds, and affixing signatures to paper money.

The ceremonial chores came naturally to Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest who served as treasurer throughout the Eisenhower administration. Mrs. Priest liked nothing better than to don a pretty hat and go out to address a women's group. Even so, Mrs. Priest often was annoyed at being ignored when top Treasury officials were called together for policy discussions.

Mrs. Granahan says she is quite willing to undertake the ceremonial functions. But she also wants to play an effective role in the more important work of her new office.

Personal Touch Adds To Value Of Gifts You Make

By Vivian Brown
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Many young people are making their own Christmas gifts again this year—not fancy, big or expensive remembrances.

They are favoring down to earth, personalized gifts. Fancy initials or names and designs may be written with pencil in the corners of plain handkerchiefs that may be embroidered with ordinary white or colored thread.

One teen-ager is crocheting bands of inch-wide insertions for pillow slips. Others are making needlepoint book marks, lasting friendship gifts. Initials may be embroidered on ski or skating head bands in a contrasting wool.

At a Christmas sale of the Home Fashions League in New York two items were unusual and easy to put together. One was a Christmas hanging, spelling Noel; the other was a zippered case in gaily printed cottons by fabric designer Jack Lenoir Larsen.

A Carry-All
The hanging is a lovely adornment in a room or on a door. It's the choice of fabric that sets the case apart, just the thing for carrying anything from papers to sandwiches.

The felt hanging is 51 inches long but could be shorter. It is 8 inches wide, and each letter is 6 inches long with 4 inches between letters. Two extra inches are left at the top for a dowel.

The bottom comes to a point below the "L" so an extra inch, making 5, is left for that. Letters "N" and "E" are in one color, such as red, and "O" and "L" are in another color such as green. Letters could be one-inch or half-inch wide with braid a narrower width.

The background could be white but you don't need to stick to Christmas colors — chartreuse, shocking pink or brilliant blues may be used.

Outline the place for the letters so they can be glued on easily, then put gold or silver braid or rick rack over them. Center the braid or rick-rack between letters also as a divider. Or run the zippered case is not an involved project.

Cut heavy fabric—11½ in. by 16 in. for front; 13½ by 16 inches in back. The lining is 10½ in. by 14½ in. in front; 12½ by 14½ in. in back. You'll need a 14 inch zipper with tab pull. The Home Fashion League girls used Pellon for a lining. Here's how:

Join fabric front to back on 16 in. side, making a ½ in. seam, using large sewing machine stitch. Press seam open. Center lining on wrong side of front and back sections, being sure it is under raw edge of seam and touching it. Pin to hold in place. Pin zipper face down on wrong side of seam.

Have front of case under arm of machine and zipper tab at start of seam. Stitch each side and across ends of zipper with zipper attachment.

When complete, slit seam open. But open zipper first to avoid case being sealed closed with stitching.

Almost Done
Fold fabric, right sides together, so raw edges are even. Pin to hold and stitch ¼ inch seam on both sides and lower edge. Clip corners. Fold lining away from fabric in other direction, having raw edges even.

Pin to hold and stitch ¼ inch seam on 16-inch edge of lining. Clip away seam allowance ¼ inch from stitching. Reverse to right side bringing lining inside. Gently push corners out to be neat angles. Press case. Add pull to zipper tag.

Readers Share Opinions On Teaching And Husbands Who Help At Home

By Roberta Fleming Roesch
Dear Readers:

We're focusing the footlights on you right now. So here's the stage for the day!

Dear R. R.: A few years ago I quit a good office job to go back to college so I could return to teaching after many years away from it.

Wondered About Her
At the time, many people wondered whether I'd find rewards in changing jobs since trying to do justice to thirty, thirty-five or forty children of varying abilities would be much harder than my former work.

Frankly, it is harder and more exhausting. But in answer to the question of whether or not changing jobs can be rewarding, each day has its own rewards.

Note To Teacher
For instance, to find a note, "I love you, teacher," on the bottom of the spelling paper of a little girl who's too shy to tell you is one reward.

And to see the sullen, resentful look on the face of a new boy who has moved from school to school until he feels he has no friends gradually give way to a happier expression along toward spring is another.

Walk A Tightrope
Dear R. R.: More and more I think we mothers walk a sort of tightrope most of the time.

Or, if we don't, we're certainly expected to.

With this in mind, each one of us should read the wonderful study of us and our needs by the famous Dr. Ashley Montague—"The Natural Superior."

Makes Lunch
Since he works from 4:30 p.m. to 1 a.m., he prepares a hot lunch for us, keeps the floors scrubbed and waxed and gets up in the morning to prepare my breakfast.

I suppose some of your male readers will hate him for this. But I love him. What do you think?

Mrs. E.

Have It Made
Comment: From my morning spot frying bacon and eggs, I think you have it made!

(If you have a job, home, hobby, retirement or self-improvement opinion to share, send it to me in care of this newspaper and I will publish your ideas in this column whenever possible and when they are of general interest.)

Bartonsville — The Crusader Christmas meeting will be held at St. John's Lutheran parish house on Friday night, at 8. There will not be an exchange of gifts. Instead, cash contributions will be made towards the current Crusader project.

Wednesday, December 12 (Virgo) — "Plain old things" might be just what the doctor ordered. But your day and needs, and the most choices of activity, interests. NOT FORGETTING everyday must. Better — than — several — past opportunity days. Do your work well, and assist others when you can. May 23 to June 21 (Gemini) — Career and social work, construction, selling, buying (under careful eye), travel, new transactions, revised markets favored. If question and ambition back them soundly.

June 22 to July 21 (Cancer) — Activity connected with the sea, liquids, domesticity; original ideas and devices, inventions, research call for minute attention, but all can reward handsomely. Promising hours.

July 22 to August 21 (Leo) — Remember how to live about that smile when the going is rough, when opposition makes it difficult, then you can write a winning ticket. The friendly gesture and smile disarm.

August 22 to September 21 (Virgo) — Less vigorous than you may wish, too many instances of you can alter situations (discreetly, naturally), make needed improvement. Simplicity, attraction, ward and a gain honors.

September 22 to October 21 (Libra) — Being an ardent spectator often as important for morale's sake as being a contestant. Depend upon the time, place, project. All people involved. Accurate precise decisions.

October 22 to November 21 (Scorpio) — Aim not to be corrupted into others' ambitions or or beguiling disputes. But stand your ground in defense of principle and goals. The methods? Maybe give a little.

November 22 to December 21 (Sagittarius) — The graceful wall need not be underhanded, it often saves, another embarras and yourself grief. But apply this to all means and devices sagaciously. Some dandy opportunities.

December 22 to January 21 (Capricorn) — Stop to think before charging at whatever you see or undertake. Perhaps a slight change should be made? An ally? Do not hesitate to recognize that one can spend to earn more.

January 22 to February 21 (Aquarius) — Excellent period for increasing assets, personal and otherwise: Friendships, skills, promotion, means, or just old happy renewals of sorts. New devices for gains.

February 22 to March 21 (Pisces) — Develop primitive instincts what will eventually show your inherent talents at wide range. But think before you act, and resist suggestions. Design to complement true progress.

TOT BORN TODAY are a number of one of the most active, forward-looking signs of the Zodiac. But this incentive and demand for progressive activity must be allied to self-restraint and selflessness. Who would reach highest position must defer to others' wishes and be humble, too. Sagittarius, however, the honorable kind, and friends. Once you subside bluntness (which offends more than you realize), you have most of what you honorably seek in this world. Many outstanding military and industrial leaders in your sector. And seamen, secretaries, social assistants. Social life means much to you, and you. So keep placing the spiritual high, putting to the rear desires for socializing with gain, more, be happier for this is truly your intent. Take care in foods and liquids (meat, dairy, regular outdoor exercises; when passing on rumor, should be good at sports, games, organizing. Pen Argyl Sledding Area Set

PEN ARGYL — Mayor Christy Snyder announced that sledding in Pen Argyl will be restricted to North Westbrook Avenue, from Pennsylvania Avenue to Plainfield Avenue. The mayor also announced that sledding must stop at 10 p.m. The Westbrook Avenue area is the only one to be used for sledding in the borough for the present, Snyder said, because construction of Pennsylvania Avenue is causing heavy use of other intersections and sledding at any other area would create hazards.

Imitates JFK: Cut Off The Air

WASHINGTON (AP)—Use of a presidential mimic's voice to promote a Washington radio station caused a flurry in the Kennedy administration last weekend—but the voice was taken off the air before the White House could deliver a formal protest. White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said Tuesday he had called the station from Palm Springs, Calif., last Saturday to object, but learned a station break recording had already been discarded.

Rev. Foose Resigns Post At Phoebe-Devitt Homes

THE REV. William E. Foose, pastor and former superintendent of Phoebe Home, yesterday announced his resignation to the Board of Directors of the Phoebe-Devitt Homes, to be effective Jan. 3, 1963.

He will become superintendent of the Good Samaritan Home of Quincy, Ill. It, like Phoebe Home, is affiliated with the United Church of Christ.

Rev. Foose from 1957 until 1961 was superintendent of Phoebe Home. In 1961 when Edward F. Hunter became administrator, he became pastor.

Rev. Foose was responsible for many improvements in the home while he was in sole charge. The resident capacity was increased to 175. The infirmary area was increased from 50 to 100 beds.

The pastor said yesterday:

"I consider my greatest achievement was in changing the attitude of visitors and church people who often think of an institution for elderly people as a dull, drab, dreary place. I have worked to make Phoebe Home not just a place where one sits, waiting to die; but one in which people enter to find new happiness and purpose."

Rev. Foose is a graduate of Lancaster Theological Seminary and served in World War I as a radio operator-gunner in the Eighth Air Force and received various war honors.

Three Area Students Set For Holidays

STUDENTS at Moravian College, the life division of the St. Paul Fire & Marine, St. Paul, Minn., announced yesterday that Clifford A. Sebring, Mt. Bethel, has been appointed the first agent in Monroe County for the company.

The Western Life is the life division of the century old St. Paul Fire & Marine which operates in all states.

Frank H. Reiser, General

Agent for the Western Life in this area told reporters that he was quite pleased to have Sebring as an agent in the Mt. Bethel - Monroe area because Sebring has, for more than 20 years, been an agent specializing in auto-fire lines, but his desire to render a complete service to his clients has concerned him for some time.

Reiser stated that Sebring's Western Life Insurance connection will make this complete service possible.

Besides being Justice of the Peace in Mt. Bethel, Sebring has been president of Portland Chamber of Commerce, treasurer of Mt. Bethel Volunteer Fire Co., and is past president of the Northampton County Magistrates & Constables Assoc.

Reiser named retired Gen. Lucius D. Clay to head the nine-member group made up of both Democrats and Republicans.

White House sources indicated the President wanted to take a hard look at U.S. military and economic assistance, which has been costing about $4 billion a year, and ascertain whether changes are necessary. One obvious aim was to present a program which will gain congressional and public approval next year.

One White House official acknowledged foreign aid has been growing more difficult to sell to Congress and the public each year.

Both companies will continue to accept orders at the old prices for shipment in the next 10 days.

Refined sugar prices in New York are closed to their highest levels in nearly 40 years.

The dog's barking aroused its owners in a third-floor apartment. Firemen were summoned and awakened two other families on the second floor.

Mrs. Florence Bobbert, 46, was admitted to a hospital in fair condition. Her husband and a daughter were treated at the scene. They own the dog.

Six members of the Thomas W. Fair and Floyd Fair families on the second floor were treated at the hospital and released.

Firemen said the fumes came from a circulating heater in a piano shop on the ground floor of the building.

Mountaineers Open With 58-49 Victory

PEN ARGYL — Stroud Union High School's Mountaineer cagers opened their 1962-63 season on the winning side of the ledger, handing Pen Argyl's Green Knights their first setback in three encounters by a 58-49 score.

Although the Mountaineers outscored the Knights in every period, the game actually went right down to the wire as the Stroud Union quintet broke the game open in the final two minutes of play.

With only a minute-and-a-half remaining, the Mountaineers led by a mere one-point margin, 50-49, before Dave Pierson, Glen Bisbing and Bob Robertson all combined to pull the game out of the fire.

Robertson hit on a push shot to give Stroud Union a 52-49 edge, and then Pearson and Bisbing concluded the stunning finish, connecting on field goals and free throws for the win.

Stroud Union's Pierson was high scorer for both teams as he pumped in 18 points on seven field goals and added four from the foul marker. Henry Ray also hit double figures for the winners with 12 on five field goals and two free throws.

For Pen Argyl, Roger Snyder tallied 15 on five from the floor and five more from the foul line, while Bob Engler broke into double digits with 11 points.

Lead By Five
The Mountaineers took a 12-10 first-period lead and outscored the Knights by an 18-15 margin in the second canto to hold a halftime advantage of 30-25.

The game still remained close throughout the third session with the Mountaineers barely edging the Knights by a 12-11 spread. Pen Argyl was outscored in the final period by 16-13.

In the preliminary contest, Pen Argyl's JV's took the measure of the Little Mountaineers, 49-41.

Bearcats Rated Top Team

By SHELDON SAROWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Bearcats ruled a near-unanimous choice Tuesday as collegiate basketball's No. 1 team in the weekly Associated Press poll.

Ed Jucker's veteran crew, which finished second to Ohio State in last year's regular season rankings but then whipped the Buckeyes in the NCAA championship, seems determined to justify its lofty rating. The Bearcats also were first a week ago.

Win First Four
Cincinnati won its first four games handily to earn the plaudits of the panel of sports writers and sportscasters participating in the poll. Of 45 ballots cast, the Bearcats received 41 first place votes and one for second. Duke collected the other first place vote.

On the basis of scoring (10 votes for first, 9 for second, etc.) Cincinnati compiled 449 of a possible 450 points. Duke was a distant second with 355 points. The Bearcats, who lost only center Paul Hogue from last year's club, posted their fourth straight victory at the expense of George Washington 86-59 last Saturday night. Cincinnati plays twice this week, meeting Kansas State Friday night and Kansas Saturday night, both games on the road.

Duke Second
Duke piled up enough second place votes to remain in the runner-up spot. The Blue Devils have won all three of their starts and polled 365 points. Ohio State, 76-69 upset victor of West Virginia Saturday night, has won four in a row to move into the top ten for the first time. The Buckeyes ranked third with 212 points.

The other clubs to break into the elite group for the first time this week were Colorado, the defending Big Eight titlist, and Illinois of the Big Ten. Colorado, 3-0, ranked eighth and Illinois, 2-0, was 10th. Records include games through last Saturday.

The three teams which dropped out of the top ten this week were Indiana, Kentucky and Wichita. Loyola Fourth

Loyola of Chicago maintained its hold on fourth place and Mississippi State remained fifth. Both clubs enhanced their stature Monday night, Loyola crushing Wisconsin-Milwaukee 107-47 and Mississippi State overwhelming Louisiana College 83-59.

West Virginia skidded three places from third to sixth on the heels of its loss to Ohio State. Wisconsin dropped a notch from sixth to seventh and had its prestige deflated Monday night with an 87-86 setback by Indiana State. Colorado turned back Northwestern after triumph over Wichita the previous week to move into eighth place with a 3-0 record.

Oregon State slipped two places from seventh to ninth, mainly because of a Friday night loss to Seattle. Illinois' convincing victory over Washington of St. Louis last Thursday enabled the Illini to join the select circle.

Royals Lose Second To Palisades

ROSETO — The Pius X Royals last night went down to their second defeat in as many games as Palisades High School scored a decisive 68-43 victory over the boys of Coach John Thomas.

Wally Hippave of Palisades proved too much for the Royals to handle as he dumped in a total of 28 points while two other teammates also broke into double figures. Steve Filko hit for 18, and Bill Young connected for 11.

Al DeRenzis once again was the high scorer for the Royals with 16 points on five field goals and six free throws. Frank Gordini contributed 10 in a losing cause.

Takes Lead
Pius X took a 17-13 lead at the end of the first period, but faltered in the second quarter as they scored but four points, although the visiting Palisades club tallied only eight for 21-21 tie at halftime.

But Palisades broke the game wide open in the third period with Hippave and Filko pouring in one shot after another to outscore the Royals by a margin of 23-7 to end any further suspense.

In the final period, Palisades outscored the Pius X club by 24-15 to wrap up the victory.

Both teams took 17 shots from the foul line with the Royals hitting on nine, and Palisades connecting for 10.

Bangor Wins Three In Row

BANGOR — Coach Bill Pen-syl's Slaters of Bangor High continue to surprise almost everyone in the Slate Belt while continuing to win. They made it three straight here last night with a 67-42 victory over Coplay, marking the first time in 12 years a Bangor High team has recorded three in a row.

If they keep up this pace, pretty soon it will be surprising if they lose a ballgame.

Bill Heller was the scoring star for the Slaters last night with 18 points, but noteworthy contributions also were made by Tom Moyer with 16 and Dick Snyder with 15.

Tight Defense
On the Coplay side — much to the credit of the Slaters' tight defensive operations — no one was able to reach double figures.

The Slaters got off winging with a 15-13 first-period lead, and then bombed the nets for 22 points in the second canto while holding the fast-fading Coplay five to 11 points.

Bangor also outscored the visiting club in each of the remaining two stanzas by margins of 15-6 and 15-12.

Pensyl's combine connected for a total of 25 field goals in the game — 10 more than Coplay could muster, and hit for 17 of 29 foul flips to 12 of 22 for Coplay.

The previous victims of this Bangor team with "the new look" were Lehigh and Northampton.

In the preliminary JV clash, Bangor also took the measure of the Coplay squad, 43-37.

Moss Decides On NFL's Cardinals

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)—Tackle Jim Moss of the University of South Carolina said Tuesday he has decided to play with the St. Louis Cardinals of the National Football League.

Both St. Louis and the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League had bid for Moss' services.

Moss said he signed a St. Louis contract Saturday night, and also acknowledged that he had signed an earlier contract with the Bills. But he said there was "the verbal stipulation that the Buffalo contract would not be binding until after the National Football League draft and I had an opportunity to negotiate with whichever NFL team drafted me."

Moss said he sent the Bills a telegram Monday telling of his decision to play with St. Louis. He said he returned the bonus check which was given him by the Buffalo team.

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The Green Bay Packers dominated the Associated Press' All-Star team of the National Football League Tuesday with a total of 10 of the 22 players selected on the offensive and defensive units.
Paul Hornung, the player of the year in 1961, did not make the team selected by a committee of sports writers and broadcasters from the 14 league cities. Green Bay's star halfback missed about half of the season due to a knee injury.
Fullback Jim Taylor, tight end Ron Kramer, tackle Forrest Gregg, guard Jerry Kramer and center Jim Ringo of the defending champion Packers were named to the first offensive team. Defensive end Willie Davis, tackle Henry Jordan, linebackers Dan Currie and Bill Forester and corner back Herb Adderley of the Packers made the defensive unit.
Four For Giants
The New York Giants, who already have clinched the Eastern Conference title, put four men on the two teams including Y. A. Tittle, their balding 36-year-old quarterback, and Del Shofner, his favorite target at split end. Roosevelt Brown, massive offensive tackle, also was placed on the offensive team for the Giants and safety Jimmy Patton made it on defense.
Detroit's tremendous defensive unit earned four places with Joe Schmidt, the hardy perennial, at center; linebacker, 296-pound Roger Brown at tackle and Dick (Night Train) Lane and Yale Lary in the secondary.

Warrior Cagers Entertain Rams

WEST CHESTER'S Rams invaded the East Stroudsburg State College basketball arena tonight as the Warriors of Coach North Hochheiser hope to get back on the winning side of the ledger with their second victory of the season.
The Warriors have dropped contests to Montclair State and Bloomsburg while winning in their only previous home appearance to date with a 69-51 verdict over Cheyney's Wolves. East Stroudsburg thus is 1-1 in Pennsylvania State College Athletic Conference play entering tonight's battle.
Big Gun
John Murphy, the six-foot, 185-pound senior from Forty Fort, has been the big gun in Hochheiser's offense as he has led the Warrior cagers in scoring in all three games. Murphy has hit the cords for 64 points, for a game average of 21. His best effort thus far was in the team's opener at Montclair when he poured in a total of 27 points. He dumped in 18

Terry Yankee Standout

BOSTON (AP)—Ralph Terry's contribution to the New York Yankees' victory in the American League pennant race is reflected in the official 1962 pitching statistics released Tuesday.
The 26-year-old right-hander, taking up the slack caused by ace lefty Whitey Ford's arm miseries, won the most games in the junior circuit, 23, pitched the most innings, 299 and started the most games, 29. He also allowed the most homers, 40.
Terry, who blanked San Francisco 1-0 in the seventh and deciding game of the World Series, finished eighth in the regular season earned run competition with a 3.19 average.
The ERA title was captured by Detroit's Hank Aguirre with a 2.21 mark. The southpaw, who became a full-fledged starting pitcher after seven years as a reliever, allowed only 53 earned runs in 216 innings while posting a 16-8 win-loss mark.
Robbin Roberts, the former Philadelphia National League star who made an excellent comeback with Baltimore, was second with a 2.78 ERA. Ford was third with 2.90. Whitey won 17 games, 8 less than in 1961.
Three pitchers won 20 games. They were Camilo Pascual of Minnesota, Ray Herbert of Chicago and Dick Donovan, Cleveland.
Herbert, who lost nine games, had the highest winning percentage, .690. Pascual was the pace-setter in strikeouts with 206 and complete games, 18. He also shared the lead in shutouts with Donovan and teammate Jim Kaat. Each had five.
Citing the vast number of telegrams from townspeople which poured into the team at Slippery Rock before the title game, Gregory declared, "The relationship between the college and the communities has always been good and it looks like it's going to be even better."
Gregory had high praise for his assistant coaches and his two captains of the past season—Quarterback Bill Lewis and End Joe Heverin whom he described as the "two finest leaders I've ever been associated with."
He also introduced his two co-captains for next year—Center Joe Bahatka and Halfback Toby Barkman. He described Bahatka as "the best defensive player in the PSCAC" and Barkman as "the best offensive player in the conference."

Eiler's Comments
Eiler, in his comments, said, "An affair like this doesn't surprise me as a former Lion member because they are always on the lookout to honor others."
Of his soccer team, he said: "At the beginning of the season I was rather concerned about our defensive play because of losses from the previous year's squad."
Admitting that the first several games "gave me the jitters," he added that "it didn't take long for these fellows to work as a unit."
"It's very seldom," he continued, "a team goes into a national playoff and ends up with two shutouts."
"If ever I saw a ball club that was ready to do a job, this was it. I was surprised and pleased."
Continuing his high praise for the team, Eiler continued: "I've never seen such a co-ordinated effort in my 28 years of coaching... I could not single out any one player who did his job better than anybody else."
This, he noted, is "a fine tribute to the word 'Teamwork.'"
He also introduced his two co-captains from this year's team, Larry Wallace and Al Oberholtzer, and next year's co-captains, Ken Kutler and Paul Grube.
Lauds Behavior
Also lauding the players was Dr. Frank D. Sills, head of the college's health and physical education department.
Dr. Sills noted the behavior of the players of both teams, saying: "They have represented this college so well. Never has there been any criticism of their behavior, anytime, anywhere. It would be difficult to get a group of men who could represent the college as well as these players have."
He also spoke briefly on the proposed new field house, noting "We are trying to devise ideas and plans to move ahead as rapidly as possible."
Concluding the affair was a humorous address by George Halfacre, assistant football coach at Lehigh University.

Camden Trades Hill
CAMDEN, N. J. (AP) — In a straight player deal, the Camden club in the Eastern Basketball League has traded Sonny Hill to Wilkes-Barre, Pa., for Hal Lear, former Temple University star. tackle who moved to guard in mid-season due to the illness of Palmer Pyle, shared the guard assignment with Jerry Kramer, who took over Hornung's place-kicking chores. The Colts also placed 35-year-old Gino Marchetti at defensive end.
Starting Backfield
The starting backfield on offense included Tittle at quarter, Taylor at fullback, Bobby Mitchell of Washington at flanker and Don Perkins of Dallas at halfback. For the first time since he joined the league six seasons ago, Cleveland's Jimmy Brown did not make the team. John Henry Johnson of Pittsburgh and Dick Bass of Los Angeles also received serious consideration for the halfback job won by Perkins.
Other top flight stars who were near misses on the first units were end Mike Ditka of Chicago; defensive tackle Alex Karras of Detroit; center Ray Wietecha, defensive end Jim Katcavage and defensive back Eric Barnes of the Giants; and safety man Willie Wood and guard Fuzzy Thurston of Green Bay.

Pennsylvania Seeks Industry

HARRISBURG (AP)—A top state official has been dispatched to California to seek an industry for the idle facilities at Quehanna in North-Central Pennsylvania, the Commerce Department reported Monday.

The official is J. Eric Jones, deputy secretary of commerce. Commerce Secretary Thomas J. Monaghan said among the firms Jones will contact is the Rocketdyne Division of North American Aviation.

Rocketdyne had indicated an interest in the 55,000-acre site, but said last week it was too large. The Quehanna site now is occupied by Curtiss-Wright Corp., which owns a portion of the land and leases the rest from the state.

SALES and USE TAX on Holiday Purchases Your Christmas Gift to Public Schools . . .

CHRISTMAS merchandise purchased outside of Commonwealth and brought into Pennsylvania for USE within its borders is subject to the Four Per Cent Use Tax.

STATE aid to education is made possible through the Sales and Use Tax. To meet the increasing costs of public schools and State-Aided or State-Owned institutions of higher learning, the Department of Revenue, through the Sales Tax Bureau, is intensifying its program to license out-of-State vendors to collect the four per cent levy.

OUT-OF-STATE vendors selling and delivering merchandise are responsible for the collection and payment of Pennsylvania's Four Per Cent Sales or Use Tax.

OUT-OF-STATE merchants failing to meet their Sales and Use Tax responsibilities, thus creating unfair competition for Pennsylvania merchants, are subject to legal proceedings in the State or Federal Courts.
